Redbirds: Minka

Said the Cossack to the maiden
'Love, my heart is heavy laden.
Duty calls so I'm afraid en-chantress, we must part.'

'I beseech you fairest Minka,
Wait for me. I'd hate to think a-nother man might come and tinker with your faithful heart.'

Off the Cossack went to battle
All alone poor Minka sat
eleven years and waited, waited all her heart was true.

When at last her Cossack lover
Came back home looking for her,
He began to court and ask her
Let's get to the church on time. Bravo!

Finale: The Tree Song

I saw a tree by the riverside one day as I walked along.
Straight as an arrow and pointing to the sky growing tall and strong.
"How do you grow so tall and strong?" I said to the riverside tree.
This is the song my tree friend sang to me:

Chorus:

I've got roots growing down to the water,
I've got leaves growing up to the sunshine,
and the fruit that I bear is a sign of the life in me.
I am shade from the hot summer sundown.
I am nest for the birds of the heavens.
I'm becoming what the Lord of trees has meant me to be:
A strong young tree.

I saw a tree in the wintertime, when snow lay on the ground.
Straight as an arrow and pointing to the sky winter winds blew all around.
"How do you stay so tall and strong?" I said to the wintertime tree.
This is the song my tree friend sang to me:

Chorus:

I've got roots growing down to the water,
I've got leaves growing up to the sunshine,
and the fruit that I bear is a sign of the life in me.
I am shade from the hot summer sundown.
I am nest for the birds of the heavens.
I'm becoming what the Lord of trees has meant me to be:
A strong young tree.
